

5th class work – Mon. 15th - Fri. 19th June 2020

Activity 2:

Fair Trade Activity

This is a fair-trade activity. It is all about Samuel, his wife and their coffee farm. There are several activities to do around the theme. Feel free to pick and choose the ones you prefer. Remember to watch the video first. Click here. When the video is playing you can just click on it and drag the picture around as it plays to get a full 360⁰ view. To submit your work, send in a picture to general posts or chat.

Draw a picture that shows Samuel at one side of the page growing coffee and a teacher on the opposite side of the page drinking coffee! How are the two people connected? Draw the journey that coffee takes from Samuel to the teacher.	Create a coffee painting. Ask a grown up to make a small amount of coffee. Use a paint brush to paint a picture of a coffee plant. Send a picture of your artwork to Teams, or the Fairtrade Schools team at schools@fairtrade.org.uk.	Create your own 2-minute documentary showing where you live and what you do at home every day.
What sounds can you hear on Samuels farm? (you can click on the video to drag the picture and get a 360⁰ view). When you go outside today, close your eyes for 20 seconds and listen to all of sounds you can hear. Hold up a fist. Every time you hear a sound, raise a finger. Afterwards, recall the sounds you heard.	Samuel and his wife on their coffee farm 	Write a set of instructions for making a cup of coffee.
Create a menu for a café. Remember to include Fairtrade coffee!	Samuel lives in Kenya. Visit the National Geographic Kids website and conduct research on Kenya. Create a travel brochure about the country.	What is the secret of good coffee according to Samuel?