Lámh and ISL sign language, Summary.

- Signing rules followed

1. Signing space above waist up to shoulders, nothing allowed in hands or blocking face.

2. Face the person you are speaking and signing to and make sure you have their attention.

3. keep hands empty and your face clear of anything, e.g sunglasses, face masks

4. Use facial expressions and body language with signs, happy face for the word happy.

5. Always use the word with the sign

6. For more than one, make the sign twice.
( e.g cat, dog )

7. Put things in sight but out of reach. Biscuit jar.

Remember the

- Importance of visuals for learning.

( See week 1 notes, 8 points to note)

- Importance of children sitting up close to you so they can lip read and make sure you are facing them when signing and speaking to them . Difficulties of some lip reading words, re emphasizing the need for sign language.

Remember some signs may differ even in Irish sign language, some are spelt, some boys learned signs a little different to girls long ago.
